FORT VERDE STATE HISTORIC PARK

07/25

Experience life through the eyes of a frontier soldier at Fort Verde State Historic Park in Camp Verde, Arizona. The fort was a base for General Crook's U.S. Army scouts and soldiers in the 1870s and 1880s. From 1865 - 1891, Camp Lincoln, Camp Verde and Fort Verde were home to officers, doctors, families, enlisted men, and scouts.

The park is the best-preserved example of an Indian Wars-period fort in Arizona. Today, visitors can experience three historic house museums that are listed on the National & State Register of Historic Places. The park offers picnic tables, restrooms, and RV and tour bus parking. Be sure to check our website events page for all our special events and living history days going on year-round. Stop by and step into Arizona's past!

Thank you for visiting!

Visitor Center

The Visitor Center includes admission, book store, and gift shop. Parking is available for buses and RVs. Living history programs can be provided for your group by calling in advance. School and tour groups are welcome.

The Visitor Center also has an area for visitors to dress up in period clothing and take pictures!

Museum and Exhibits

The Adjutant Headquarters is also the main museum with artifacts, photos, videos, and interpretive exhibits and artifacts focused on the Indian Wars history and lives of those who lived and served at Fort Verde, including soldiers, Indian Scouts, settlers, post surgeons, and Native Americans.

Three historic house museums remain on Officer's row: Commanding Officer's Quarters, Bachelor Officer's Quarters and the Surgeon's Quarters, all furnished in the 1880s period.
